Noor

MAGAZINE

Issue No. 3

Janabe Fatimah (sa) in the Holy Qur'an

Hadith al-Lawh

From the Light of Janabe Fatimah (sa) to the Patience of Janabe Zainab (sa)

Noor
MAGAZINE

Issue No. 3

With genuine gratitude to Allah (swt), we are delighted to present the third issue of Noor Magazine, dedicated to the inspiring theme:

From the Light of Janabe Fatimah (sa) to the Patience of Janabe Zainab (sa)

The lives of Janabe Fatimah (sa) and Janabe Zainab (sa) embody a timeless journey of faith, dignity, sacrifice, and steadfastness.

Janabe Fatimah (sa) was a radiant example of devotion, knowledge, worship, courage, and unwavering loyalty to the Holy Prophet (saww). Her life reminds us that true spiritual light is reflected in our character, faith, and devotion to Allah (swt).

From that radiant household emerged Janabe Zainab (sa), whose remarkable patience, courage, and steadfastness carried this legacy forward. Amid immense hardship, she upheld the truth and ensured that the message and sacrifice of Imam al-Husayn (a) would never be forgotten.

Their lives teach us a profound lesson: faith illuminates the heart, while patience gives that light the strength to endure every trial.

May Allah (swt) accept our efforts, increase us in faith and knowledge, and keep our hearts steadfast upon the path of the Ahlulbayt (as).

With Sincere Duas,

Editor.

Janabe Fatimah (sa) in the Holy Qur'an

Janabe Fatimah al-Zahra (sa), the beloved daughter of the Holy Prophet (saww), occupies a distinguished position in the teachings of the Ahlulbayt (as). Although her blessed name does not appear explicitly in the Holy Qur'an, several verses refer to her directly, while others illuminate the virtues she embodied and the legacy she left behind.

1. The Verse of Purification

"... Allah only desires to keep all uncleanness away from you, O People of the House, and to purify you [with] a thorough purification." (Q33:33)

"Thinking of the Ahlulbayt (a) should inspire us to cleanse our hearts — through worship and refining our character."

Janabe Fatimah (sa) in the Holy Qur'an

2. Love for the Holy Prophet (saww)'s Near Relatives

Say, 'I do not ask of you any reward for it but love for [my] near relatives.' (Q42:23)

The term 'near relatives' (al-qurba) in this verse denotes the Ahlulbayt (a), among whom is Janabe Fatimah (sa).

If our love for the Ahlulbayt (a) is sincere, it will be visible in the way we live.

Let us honour their teachings by being truthful and compassionate, and by remaining firm in our obedience to Allah (swt)."

Janabe Fatimah (sa) in the Holy Qur'an

3. Sincerity in Giving

"We feed you only for the sake of Allah; we desire neither recompense nor gratitude from you." (Q76:9)

This verse was revealed after Janabe Fatimah (sa), along with Imam Ali (a), Imam al-Hasan (a), and Imam al-Husayn (a), fasted for three days and gave away all their bread (iftar) to a poor man, an orphan, and a captive — despite their own hunger. Her central role as the one who prepared the food with her own hands, within her own home, makes her a living embodiment of the verse's message of selfless charity (ithar) and sincere devotion to Allah (swt).

The value of a good deed depends greatly on the sincerity behind it. Help others without seeking recognition, and renew your intention before serving people. True abundance lies not merely in what we possess, but by the goodness that flows through us and into the lives of others.

Janabe Fatimah (sa) in the Holy Qur'an

4. True Honour and Lasting Legacy

"Indeed, We have granted you abundant goodness." (Q108:1)

Al-Kawthar is interpreted in various ways, including abundant blessings and the river of Paradise. The opening verse of Surah al-Kawthar is a message of divine generosity and reassurance. At a time when the Quraysh sought to diminish the Holy Prophet (saww), Allah (swt) declared that He had blessed him (saww) with abundant goodness by granting him Janabe Fatimah (sa) as a daughter.

This teaches us that divine blessings appear in spiritual guidance, righteous descendants, exemplary character, and a legacy whose light continues across generations.

Do not measure your worth by other people's approval. Build a legacy through faith, service, and good character.

Janabe Fatimah (sa) in the Holy Qur'an

5. The Foundation of Righteousness

"... Verily the most noble of you in the sight of Allah is the most Godwary among you; verily Allah is Knowing, Aware."* (Q49:13)

True righteousness lies in having sincere faith, maintaining good character and consistently choosing what pleases Allah (swt), even when it requires personal sacrifice.

The life of Janabe Fatimah (sa) teaches us that true righteousness is reflected not merely in outward actions, but in the purity of one's heart, sincerity of intentions and devotion to Allah (swt). Through her worship, humility, and selfless care for others, she showed us how faith should guide every aspect of our lives.
Her example reminds us that righteousness is achieved when our words, actions and intentions are aligned with the pleasure of Allah (swt).

HADITH AL-LAWH

Hadith al-Lawh was narrated by Jabir ibn Abdullah al-Ansari, a companion of the Holy Prophet (saww), from Imam Muhammad al-Baqir (a).

The Lawh (Tablet) upon which this Hadith is inscribed was sent down from Heaven as a gift to the Holy Prophet (saww) on the occasion of the birth of Imam al-Husayn (a). The Holy Prophet (saww) subsequently gifted it to his beloved daughter, Janabe Fatimah al-Zahra (sa).

Abu Basir narrates from Imam al-Sadiq (a) that one day, his father, Imam Muhammad al-Baqir (a), spoke to Jabir about the Tablet that he had once seen in the possession of Janabe Fatimah (sa). Jabir then recounted its inscriptions to the Imam.

HADITH AL-LAWH

Jabir testified: "During the lifetime of the Holy Prophet (saww), I visited your grandmother, Janabe Fatimah (sa), to congratulate her on the birth of her son, al-Husayn (a). On that occasion, I saw a beautiful Tablet in her hands, radiating a brilliant light. I asked her, 'What is this?' She replied, 'This is a Tablet that Allah (swt) has gifted to His Messenger (s). It contains the names of my father, my husband, my two sons, and the Imams from my descendants.'

Jabir continued, 'Your grandmother then handed the Tablet to me. I read its inscriptions and made a copy of them.'"

Timeless lessons we can learn from Janabe Zainab (sa)

Faith must be stronger than fear.

Let your faith in Allah (swt) overcome your fears, and never allow difficult circumstances to weaken your commitment to the truth. Janabe Zainab (sa) showed that true courage is born from unwavering faith, enabling a believer to stand firm in the face of adversity, suffering, and injustice.

Timeless lessons we can learn from Janabe Zainab (sa)

Patience must be accompanied by action.

True patience is not passive endurance; it is steadfastness coupled with purposeful action. Janabe Zainab (sa) taught us to face hardship with dignity, defend the truth, and fulfil our responsibilities, even in the most difficult circumstances.

Timeless lessons we can learn from Janabe Zainab (sa)

Knowledge must serve the truth.

Beneficial knowledge should guide us towards truth and strengthen our commitment to justice. Janabe Zainab (sa) demonstrated that knowledge is not merely meant to be acquired, but must be used to expose falsehood, defend the oppressed, and uphold the teachings of Islam with wisdom and courage.

Timeless lessons we can learn from Janabe Zainab (sa)

Dignity cannot be taken away by circumstances.

A believer's dignity is derived from faith, self-respect, and obedience to Allah (swt)—not from worldly status or circumstances. Janabe Zainab (sa) showed that even in the face of captivity, humiliation, and immense suffering, one can uphold honour, stand by principles, and remain resolute against oppression.

Timeless lessons we can learn from Janabe Zainab (sa)

A person's legacy lives through their actions.

An enduring legacy is built not through words or worldly accomplishments, but through deeds grounded in faith, sincerity, and devotion to Allah (swt). Janabe Zainab (sa) exemplified this by safeguarding the message of Imam Husayn (a), boldly defending the truth, and ensuring that the lessons of Karbala would continue to inspire generations to come.

Verses from the Holy Qur'an that reflect the Qualities of Janabe Zainab (sa)

Patience

"Seek Allah's help through patience and prayer." (Q2:153)

Let patience strengthen your faith.

Do not allow trials to weaken your relationship with Allah (swt); let them strengthen your reliance upon Him.

Trust in the wisdom of Allah (swt).

Every hardship is an opportunity to draw closer to Allah (swt). Even in difficult times, there may be hidden blessings and valuable lessons that we may not immediately recognize.

When faced with uncertainty or hardship, remain patient, turn to Allah (swt) in prayer, and trust His decisions. Have faith that He knows what is best, even when the path ahead is unclear.

Verses from the Holy Qur'an that reflect the Qualities of Janabe Zainab (sa)

Standing for the Truth

"O you who believe! Be mindful of Allah and stand with the truthful." (Q9:119)

Choose righteous friends.
Surround yourself with those who are sincere, truthful, and committed to pleasing Allah (swt).

Stand by the truth.
Never compromise your principles to gain acceptance or avoid criticism.

Let your words reflect your faith. Speak honestly, avoid falsehood, and stand up for what is right, even when you stand alone. Ensure that your actions are consistent with your words. Be sincere in all your dealings. Let honesty guide your relationships, decisions, and responsibilities.

Verses from the Holy Qur'an that reflect the Qualities of Janabe Zainab (sa)

Gratitude

"If you are grateful, I will surely enhance you with more [blessing]." (Q14:7)

Let gratitude strengthen your faith.

Janabe Zainab (sa) teaches us that true gratitude is not dependent on how easy our lives are, but on how firmly we remain connected to Allah through every circumstance.

Thank Allah (swt) in times of ease and hardship. Instead of focusing only on what is missing from our lives, recognize His blessings, remain patient, and let gratitude deepen our faith and strengthen our trust in Him.

Verses from the Holy Qur'an that reflect the Qualities of Janabe Zainab (sa)

Unwavering Trust in Allah (swt) - Tawakkul

"... And whoever trusts in Allah, He suffices him..." (Q65:3)

Trust Allah in every circumstance.

Despite witnessing the tragedy of Karbala, losing her beloved family members, and enduring captivity, she never lost her trust in Allah (swt).

When faced with difficulties, remain patient, continue striving for what is right, and entrust the outcome to Allah (swt). Let our faith remain stronger than our fears, knowing that Allah (swt) never abandons those who place their trust in Him.

Verses from the Holy Qur'an that reflect the Qualities of Janabe Zainab (sa)

Knowledge and Wisdom

"He grants wisdom to whom He pleases, and whoever is granted wisdom has indeed been given much good ..." (Q2:269)

Make knowledge a means of drawing closer to Allah (swt).

Knowledge and wisdom hold a central place in Islam, with the Holy Qur'an repeatedly urging believers to reflect, seek understanding, and pursue learning as an act of worship. Knowledge ('ilm) illuminates the path, while wisdom (hikmah) enables its proper application, transforming information into righteous actions.

Acquire knowledge to strengthen your faith and improve yourself.

Two Lights, One Beautiful Legacy

How I wish I could have witnessed your glow,
O Janabe Fatimah (sa), whose purity shines so.
Your devotion to Allah (swt) and your tender soul,
Teach my heart to worship and extol.

And in Janabe Zainab (sa), strength I see,
In every lesson left for me.
Through tears and sorrow, you stood tall,
With faith in Allah (swt) through it all.

From a mother's radiance to a daughter's elegance,
flows a love that time can never distance.
One taught us how to live with light,
The other how to bloom through night.

When life feels hard and tears may fall,
I'll think of you and rise through it all.
With Janabe Fatimah's (sa)
light to guide my way,
And Janabe Zainab's (sa)
patience day by day.